

Classes of Records

The Mental Health Commission holds a wide range of records, in hardcopy and electronic format, commensurate with our roles, responsibilities, and functions. In accordance with the provisions of the Freedom of Information Act 2014, the Government's Open Data initiative and the Re-Use of Public Sector Information Regulations, we endeavour to facilitate the public availability of these records through our website. The classes of records the Mental Health Commission currently holds are listed below:

- Organisational Governance and Management Records
- Correspondence Records
- Property Management Records
- Financial records
- Legal Records
- Procurement Records
- Risk Management Records
- Parliamentary Questions Records
- Queries from Members of the Public Records
- Internal Audit Records
- Service Level Agreements and Memorandums of understanding with other agencies
- Information and Communication Technology Records
- Complaints relation to the services and staff of the Commission Records
- Freedom of Information and Data Protection Related Records
- Inspection and Service Quality Assurance of Approved Centres Records
- Human Resources and Industrial Relations Records
- Health and Safety Records
- Administration of Mental Health Tribunals

The Mental Health Commission notes that certain classes of records are exempt or excluded from release either under the Freedom of Information Act 2014 or other legislation.